Federal Directory, Carroll Publishing

Now online on Gale Directory Library

NOW AVAILABLE Gale is proud to announce the addition of Carroll Publishing’s Federal Directory to the Gale Directory Library. For more than 30 years, Carroll Publishing’s government directories have provided detailed and up-to-date information on U.S. government officials at all levels of government (federal, state, municipal and county). This trusted resource — available in eDirectory format for the first time — provides contact information for members of all three branches of the U.S. government in a single resource.

Published quarterly, the Federal Directory includes full contact details — including name, title, telephone, fax and e-mail address — for nearly 38,000 senior and mid-level government officials. Detailed coverage includes the executive office of the President; all 15 cabinet level federal departments from Agriculture to Veterans Affairs; independent agencies from the Access Board to the United States Trade and Development Agency; extensive listings for the U.S. Congress including individual member offices, committee assignments, staff, e-mail and office addresses; and in-depth information on the federal court system, including the U.S. Supreme Court, the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, district courts and bankruptcy and tax courts.

Real-world users might include:

- Political activists can quickly generate mailing lists for specific congressional districts
- Government researchers can identify officials in cabinet-level departments
- Legal scholars can reach top officials in the federal court system
- General researchers can easily gather contact information for their congressional representatives
- And many others
