Combining the flexibility and ease-of-use of a database with the rich, complex content of academic research sources, Gale™ is proud to announce the latest innovation in Shakespearean research. The Shakespeare Collection — a global, online environment for scholarly research — offers enriched functionality and entirely new possibilities for the study of Shakespeare and his works. Quite simply, The Shakespeare Collection is the subject's most comprehensive and authoritative online resource, bringing together general reference data, full-text scholarly periodicals, reprinted criticism, primary source material and the full-text annotated works from The Arden Shakespeare, the world's most recognized scholarly edition. More specifically, this new online environment offers:

- The Arden fully-annotated scholarly editions of the complete works of Shakespeare, together with the introduction and appendices included in each Arden edition
- Full-text journals focusing on a range of literary and interdisciplinary topics, such as the Renaissance, Elizabethan studies, Early Modern English studies, film studies and much more
- The Gordon Crosse Theatrical Diary, which offers a rare eyewitness account of Shakespeare productions for more than 60 years
- The First Folio, key Quartos, and major editions and adaptations from the 17th, 18th and 19th centuries
- Photographs, line drawings, maps and other illustrations covering performance, theater and life and times
- Selected works by Shakespeare’s contemporaries as well as other works available during Shakespeare’s time

---

The Shakespeare Collection includes selections from Primary Source Microfilm's Four Centuries of Shakespeare, The Prompt Book collections

Detailed stage directions provide fascinating insight into historical performances
Selected criticism formerly reprinted in Thomson Gale’s acclaimed series Shakespearean Criticism

Reference materials providing background and context, including Scribner’s Shakespeare: His World, His Work, His Influence and Encyclopedia of the Renaissance, as well as biocritical essays on Shakespeare’s contemporaries and Shakespearean actors, actresses and directors

ADVISORY BOARD

- Professor Peter Holland, University of Notre Dame (Head of Board)
- Professor Michael Best, University of Victoria (Canada)
- Professor David Bevington, The University of Chicago
- Dr. Charles Edelman, Edith Cowan University (Australia)
- Professor Barbara Hodgdon, University of Michigan
- Professor Andreas Höfele, University of Munich (Germany)
- Professor Jean Howard, Columbia University
- Professor Russell Jackson, The University of Birmingham
- Professor Tetsuo Kishi, Kyoto University (Japan)
- Professor Steven Mullaney, University of Michigan
- Professor Michael Neill, The University of Auckland (New Zealand)
- Dr. Carol Chillington Rutter, The University of Warwick (UK)

The Shakespeare Collection contains the full-text annotated works from The Arden Shakespeare, the world’s most recognized scholarly edition