Chronicle the rise and fall of civilizations spanning 5,000 years in a 21st-century context

Designed to support the student completing an assignment, the instructor crafting a course outline and the librarian promoting information literacy, Gale In Context knowledge portals represent a new, exciting online experience.

This family of resources engages and motivates users while promoting true collaboration between faculty, students and librarians. Only Gale In Context combines authoritative full-text reference from Gale and its premier partners with highly relevant, dynamically updated multimedia content. Sophisticated design and functionality help students move beyond information retrieval to discover, evaluate and apply information using 21st century skills.

Scope and depth
Designed around the way today's students conduct their research, World History in Context covers both world eras and individual topics like religion, economics and political movements – making this online portal ideal for a wide range of coursework.

Cross-search for more success
Cross-search World History in Context with U.S. History in Context to provide a one-stop source for all history needs.

Access primary sources and full-text references
More than 1,760 primary source documents from Primary Source Media and other reliable providers join hundreds of acclaimed, award-winning titles from Gale, Macmillan and Scribner:
- Encyclopedia of Modern China
- Gale Encyclopedia of World History
- Macmillan Encyclopedia of World Slavery

Integrated multimedia includes:
- More than 1,500 maps and atlases
- A topic-integrated image gallery
- Video and audio selections, from archival newsreels to NPR
- Full-text periodicals and journals, including East-West Connections, History Today and The Historian

Spotlight feature: Expert Picks
World History in Context aids discovery by calling out selected sources as Expert Picks. Dozens of proven reference titles, such as New Dictionary of the History of Ideas and Encyclopedia of Religion point students to targeted background information.
Premier portals support scholarly needs
Gale In Context is the result of user input and a study of research processes. Our findings revealed that students prefer resources that combine web-like functionality with high-quality information. To help students streamline their efforts and identify the most relevant content, we created eye-catching, engaging portals that seamlessly integrate authoritative full-text reference from Gale and its partners with media-rich, curriculum-aligned content that spans core subjects and 21st century themes.

Gale In Context resources:
• Engage and motivate learners with a web-like experience that promotes information discovery
• Facilitate collaboration among librarians, students and faculty in fostering skills like critical thinking and information literacy
• Deliver helpful topic pages and enhanced search results to streamline the research process

Technology enhances the discovery experience
Gale In Context knowledge portals deliver authoritative content complemented by intuitive features:
• Content organized by type (primary source, reference, multimedia and more)
• RSS feeds automatically deliver information to students
• Factboxes provide a quick overview of biographical highlights
• Related Topics and websites aid discovery of other relevant content
• On-demand text translation into 9 languages accommodates diverse populations
• ReadSpeaker text-to-speech technology supports differentiated learning and those with impaired vision
• MLA7 and APA6 citation tools facilitate understanding of proper use of copyrighted material
• Search Assist (with “Did You Mean?” functionality) efficiently guides users to desired results
• Tools to download, print, email and share online encourage collaboration
• Topic Overviews give accurate context to each subject

For a free trial, contact your Gale Representative or visit www.gale.cengage.com/depth