

"Accessible to high-school and college students, laypersons, business people, and researchers, this outstanding reference work will quickly become a classic and will be well used by all types of libraries."

- Reference Books Bulletin/Booklist (June 1 & 15, 2001; on the first edition)

Encyclopedia of Business and Finance

PRACTICAL PRESENTATION OF BUSINESS TOPICS

 Designed for the nonspecialist, the Encyclopedia of Business and Finance has been completely reviewed, revised and expanded in this second edition from Macmillan Reference USA™, an imprint of Gale, part of Cengage Learning. All libraries – public, academic and special corporate holdings – will benefit from the Encyclopedia's comprehensive coverage of topics from today's dynamic business environment.

A BLUE CHIP RESOURCE

The first edition warranted this review from CHOICE; "The entries are well written, informative, and provide cogent introductions to complex business topics without being over simplistic." Now, the second edition delivers information relevant to the ever-changing fields of business and finance in the areas of:

- Accounting
- Economics
- Finance
- Information Systems
- Management
- Marketing

Presented in two volumes, the Encyclopedia features:

- Approximately 280 completely revised essays and 30 new essays; alphabetically arranged in a highly readable format
- Range of photographs, tables and graphs to support the text
- "Further Readings" information, directing readers to sources for continued study

SUPPORTING TODAY'S BUSINESS CONCERNS

The Encyclopedia presents in-depth essays on new areas of concern for today's business world.

Additional new essays cover:

- e-marketing
- Identity Theft
- Forensic Accounting
- Green Marketing

Essays introduced in the first edition, have been updated to reflect the industry's current state of affairs. For instance, what are the implications of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and focus on ethical practices on today's issues? One need only look to the media for their relevance as the trials of former executives from the New York Stock Exchange, Enron Corporation, Kmart Corporation and Tyco International Ltd. make headlines on a regular basis.

MEETING DIVERSE NEEDS

- High school and college students will consult the Encyclopedia for help in preparing a reports
- The teacher will locate supplementary data on the history of computers and technology
- The business professional will find a summary of antitrust laws and more
- General readers will access the full range of topics as appropriate to their specific need or query
