INFOTRAC® ¡Informe!

Built from the ground up for Spanish-speaking researchers

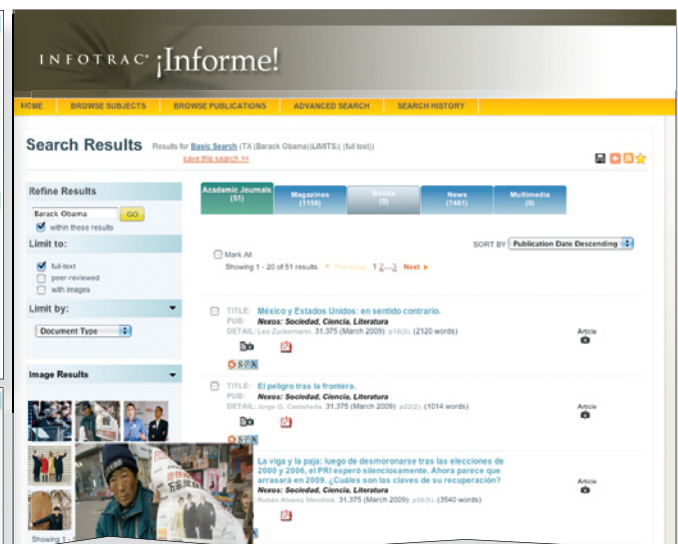

The first electronic resource in Spanish, ¡Informe! is specifically designed to meet the research needs of Spanish-speaking users. With full-text articles from the most popular Spanish-language and bilingual periodicals, it provides quality Hispanic reference material — not simply Spanish translations of English-language materials. ¡Informe! also features a powerful, easy-to-use interface configured for Spanish-speaking users, allowing researchers to analyze topics and conduct research in Spanish.

¡Informe! offers Spanish-speaking users the same high-quality research environment that is available to English-speaking researchers.

Available on the state-of-the-art Gale PowerSearch platform and updated daily, ¡Informe! offers 24/7 access to the most popular titles among Hispanic library users. Aimed at the needs of both serious, academic researchers as well as casual browsers, ¡Informe! provides single-search access to the full text of more than 420 Spanish-language

▲ The homepage offers a variety of search options, including a quick basic search. Researchers can easily narrow their results by using limiters for more targeted searching.

The screenshot displays the ¡Informe! website interface. At the top, there are navigation tabs: HOME, BROWSE SUBJECTS, BROWSE PUBLICATIONS, ADVANCED SEARCH, and SEARCH HISTORY. Below this is a search bar with the text 'Search within this Publication' and 'Barack Obama'. The main content area shows search results for 'México y Estados Unidos: En sentido contrario.' with a list of results including 'Académico', 'Noticias', 'Opinión', 'Notas', and 'Multimedia'. A detailed view of an article is shown, featuring a title 'México y Estados Unidos: En sentido contrario.', a sub-header 'Nueva Sociedad, Ciencia, Literatura 31.376 (March 2009): p1613. (2132 words)', and a 'Full Text' section. The article text discusses the 2006 US election and the role of the California Secretary of State. A sidebar on the right contains a 'Bookmark' section with various social media and utility links like Delicio.us, Google, Facebook, Newsvine, etc. The article text includes a section titled 'LA VENTAJA MEXICANA' and discusses the 2000 US election and the role of the Florida Secretary of State.
